

II FORUM OF POLISH ENGINEERS

28 September 2007

PROGRAMME

9:45-10:00

Registration of participants in POSK

10:00-10:30

Opening of the Forum

- Welcome address by dr Olgierd Lalko - chairman of the Polish Social & Cultural Centre as the host of the Forum (POSK)
- Welcome address on behalf of the organisers - Mr Krzysztof Ruszczyński - STP chairman
- Presentation of the proposed programme of the Forum, election of chairman of the sessions and of the Committee to draft the final proposals.

10:30-11:15

First session - working group presentations

- A summary of activities completed since the I Forum in June 2006 - chairman of the working group - prof. Ryszard Chmielowiec
- An outline of the needs of Polish engineers & technicians arriving in the UK - Survey results - Mr Greg Baranski-Furdal
- An outline of the project of the Adaptation Centre for Polish Engineers Arriving in the UK - dr Leszek Kasprzak

11:15-11:30

Coffee break

11:30 - 12:00

Second session - presentations by invited guests

- UK needs for technical professionals exemplified by the TfL, LUL, LDA and others
- The Polish strategy in managing technical professional resources abroad as seen by the Polish government representative and as seen by NOT (Polish Federation of Scientific and Technical Associations)

12:00 - 13:00

Discussion led by the chairman of the working group

A discussion of the problems raised during the two previous sessions and the proposed solutions

13:00 - 13:30

End of the Forum: Presentation of the conclusions

13:30 - 14:30

Lunch break at Lowiczanka restaurant at POSK

VENUE:

Polish Social & Cultural Centre (in Jazz Club) 238-246 King Street, London W6 0RF